

Keeping You Informed

The Information To Make Informed Decisions

Membership of the Independent Tertiary Education Council Australia (ITECA) empowers your team with the information to better understand the issues before independent providers in the higher education, vocational education, training and skills sectors. You'll be able to join leaders in the sector and key involved in some key discussions about the opportunities and challenges before the sector.

The great news is that once your organisation joins ITECA, any employee can subscribe to the emails and join free events such as selected ITECA Special Interest Group meetings. Your team will all be able to access discounts to attend major events such as the ITEC Conference held on the Gold Coast every year.

ITECA eUpdates Directly To You

Updates allow you to opt-in to targeted communications that will allow your team to gain insights into the perspective of independent tertiary education providers on key issues such as regulatory compliance, student funding, and loan programs.

Interest Group Meetings With Key Stakeholders

Your team will have the ability to attend selected interest group meetings such as those on international education and industry-specific areas such as healthcare, aviation, construction and, technology. †

Special Event Access

From the ITECA Leadership Briefings held online with Government Ministers to the ITECA Australian Government Budget Update, you'll be able to join independent tertiary education provides as they meet with key stakeholders across government.

ITECA Membership is all about getting involved. You'll have access to the latest information and the ability to meet leaders across the independent tertiary education sector that are committed to working collaboratively to help the sector face challenges. Your team will better understand the issues relevant to the provision of high-quality higher education, vocational education, training and skills delivery.

Take the next step to empower your team with information and influence by joining a growing community of stakeholders across the independent tertiary education sector that share a commitment to excellence.

ITECA Membership – It's a great time to get involved.

† Affiliate members not eligible to participate in regulated provider and funding meetings.