

Keeping You Informed

The Information To Make Informed Decisions

Membership of the Independent Tertiary Education Council Australia (ITECA) empowers your team with the information to make informed business decisions. You'll get exclusive updates on funding programs, regulatory changes, and other vital issues impacting independent Registered Training Organisations (RTOs).

The great news is that once your organisation joins ITECA, any employee can subscribe to the emails and join free events such as the ITECA Special Interest Group meetings. They will also all be able to access discounts to attend major events such as the ITEC Conference held on the Gold Coast every year.

ITECA eUpdates Directly To You

Updates allow you to opt-in to targeted communications on issues associated with regulatory compliance, student funding, and loan programs. You can also receive the latest data on Australia's vocational education and training sector.

Interest Group Meetings With Key Stakeholders

A range of ITECA Interest Group meetings held every quarter allow you to hear directly from the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA), the state regulators, and the various government departments and agencies that provide RTOs will skills funding.

Special Event Access

From the ITECA Leadership Briefings held online that allows you to speak with Government Ministers to the ITECA Australian Government Budget Update, you'll get the latest information that's relevant to independent RTOs with a commitment to excellence.

ITECA Membership is all about getting involved. You'll have access to the latest information and the ability to meet with key stakeholders from government and the business community. These exclusive member-only benefits allow you to understand the environment in which independent RTOs operate. Equipped with this information, your team will be able to take advantage of the opportunities and manage the challenges as they arise.

Take the next step to empower your team with information and influence by joining a growing community of independent RTOs that share your commitment to excellence.

ITECA Membership – It's a great time to get involved.
